

MATHIAS OLDÉN BIOGRAPHY

Mathias Oldén is a Swedish producer, mixer, composer, recording engineer, musician, mastering engineer, front of house engineer, carpenter, you name it... He is based and has his studio, Ganska Bra Studio, in Malmö (Sweden). He has worked with sound since February 1999 and has worked with artists such as The Hives, Zhala, Johnossi, Sibille Attar, The Radio. Dept... Born and bred 1978 in Lund (Sweden), started the band Logh in 1999, recorded, produced and mixed the first album "Every Time a Bell Rings, An Angel Gets His Wings" 2001. Released three more albums and toured frequently with Logh during the next six years (approx. 350 concerts). Moved to Stockholm 2006 and worked in various studios with recording and mixing often together with producers Pelle Gunnerfeldt or Jari Haapalainen. Moved to Malmö 2009 and started to build his own studio, alongside with working in AGM studio on the countryside outside Malmö, owned by producer Christoffer Lundquist. In 2011 Mathias met Swedish artist Zhala and they started working together on what was to become her debut album Zhala, released in May 2015 by Robyns "Konichiwa Records". The album is co-written, produced and mixed by Mathias Oldén.

Mathias Oldén

Mathias Oldén Production

Malmö, Sweden

www.mathiasolden.com

mail@mathiasolden.com